W. M. Seeligson from Goliad, is in the city prospecting. He is a prepossessing young business man and we would be glad to have him locate here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Votau and two children arrived on yesterday's stage from San Antonio and are at the Miller house. They will locate here, we understand.

Pictures that speak; that's the kind that Curry, "the Brownsville photographer," makes. Call at his gallery near the postoffice and see his samples:

Passengers to the Point yesterday were F. B. Garriga, John Simo, Messers, Lantz and Garvey, Mrs. C. Walker and child. Steward Odono of the Manteo.

Keeler Instep-Support for ladies and gentlemen. Call at H. Grunewald's.

Redford Sharp has fallen in line with the style of modern times and has abbreviated the hirsute adornment, which has kept his geiral and manly countenance from appearing at its best. He made a clean shave, chin whiskers, mustache and beard. The transformation is wonderful and his friends hope he'll never grow beard again.

Passengers up today were: Mr. Lantz, F. B. Garriga J. H. Fernandez, Mesdames Stillman, Han, son, Dennett and Delgado and child.

For rubber shoes, coats, caps, etc., in fact all kinds of rubber goods, see H. Grunewald.

CARPENTER AND BUILDER.—Contracts taken for both frame and brick buildings, and all other work in my line. Also painting and repairing. Address, Naranjo Ranch, W. S. CORRELL.

MARY M. WALTENBACH.

A Romantic Marriage.

Last Saturday a couple of young lovers slipped away from family and friends in Brownsville and crossing the Rio Bravo visited Matamoros, where they confidently expected to be made one in name and in fact and then return to Texas and surprise their relations by the announcement.

But it was not to be. Love may laugh at locksmiths, and stone walls and iron bars be defied by Cupid in every country under the sun except one, and that one is Mexico. There the sanction of the governor of the State must be secured before any marriage can be called legal, and from Matamoros to the State capital, Victoria, is a long tedious journey. It would have required twenty days for the legal formalities to be met, and that was too much for our prospective bride and groom.

They immediately returned to Brownsville procured a license and were quietly married at home. Still they kept the wedding a secret and it was nearly a week before their friends learned of it. Then congratulations and gifts were sent in a plenty and everybody was happy.

The couple were Mr. George A. C. Davis and Miss Edna A. Elstun. Mr. Davis was one of the fourth infantry boys who arrived here in May 1902. He was honorably discharged August 29, this year, and his home is in Bangor, Me. Miss Elstun was one of our city's fair and noblest young ladies. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Elstun, at the Corner of Fourteenth and Jefferson streets, and was a native of this city.

Mr. Davis is the son of Hon. Chas. A. Davis, attorney at law, 714 Main street, Bangor, Me. He was a soldier in the Civil war and lost his right arm. He was city clerk of Rockland, Me. for ten years. George Davis enlisted with Co. C., 4th Inf. from Providence, R. I., where he was attending the Rhode Island School of Design, Aug. 29, 1900. He was stationed three months in New York City, then went to the Philippines via the Suez canal. He remained there nearly a year and then came with the 4th infantry to Fort Brown, where he has been since.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis left this city yesterday to sail on the Manteo on their journey north to his home. They were accompanied by a number of friends as far as Point Isabel.

Mr. Robert J. Halligan, who was honorably discharged August 26, also sailed on the Manteo with the bridal couple. His home is in Boston, Mass.

Sap Official Here.

R. W. Stayton, attorney and right of way agent for the San Antonio and Aransas Pass Railroad Company, accompanied by Pat Furlong, arrived in Brownsville about 6 o'clock yesterday evening, and registered at the Miller hotel.

They came into the city from the Hidalgo country, where they have been for several days looking over the routes through there for the company they represent. The Sap is taking all necessary preliminary steps toward rapid and positive work on the Brownsville extension from Alice. Building material is being placed at Alice and the locating surveyors are in the field south of Alice and making fair progress with their work on the main line.

Just where the survey will branch to run out to Hidalgo is not known yet, as that country is so brushy and difficult of surveying that it will be necessary to run several preliminary lines before the best route can be selected.

The excessive rains have retarded the work also, and just at this season when the entire interests of the company must of necessity be directed to the shipment of fall freights, and all the cars, engines and employes are needed to handle this business, the work of building new lines of road is necessarily slow. But the Sap is pushing right ahead with the Brownsville extension as rapidly as conditions will permit, and there is every assurance that the road will be built within the time limit.

Mr. Stayton will probably remain in this city several days.
